

PRIVACY POLICY

As of September 20, 2022

Ecovery Life Foundation, Inc. and its affiliates (collectively “Ecovery”, the “Company”, “we”, “us” or “our”) are developing a mobile application (the “Woodland App”) offered from time to time at affiliate sites of the Company (collectively, the “Site,” or “Sites”). The Sites and the Woodland App are referred to herein as the “Woodland Services”.

PLEASE READ THIS PRIVACY POLICY CAREFULLY. BY ACCESSING OR USING THE WOODLAND SERVICES, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ, UNDERSTAND, AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ALL THE TERMS OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY AND OUR TERMS OF SERVICE. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO SUCH TERMS, EXIT THIS PAGE AND DO NOT ACCESS OR USE THE WOODLAND SERVICES.

1. INTRODUCTION.

1.1. Woodland is committed to safeguarding the privacy of our website and service users (“users,” or “you”).

1.2. This policy applies where we are acting as a data controller with respect to your personal data, in other words, where we determine the purposes and means of the processing of that personal data.

1.3. User Agreement. Use of the Woodland Services is subject to the terms of our User Agreement, which is hereby incorporated and made part of this Privacy Policy. By using the Woodland Services, you agree to be bound by our User Agreement.

1.4. Your use of the Woodland Services is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Privacy Policy (the “Privacy Policy”).

1.5. We continually strive to find new ways to enhance your experience with the Woodland Services and we may modify this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our privacy practices. You are encouraged to review this Privacy Policy periodically and to check the “Last Updated” date at the top of the Privacy Policy for the most recent version. If we make changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you here, by email, or by means of notice through the Website, the Application, or any other part of the Woodland Services

2.1. In this Section 2 we have set out:

2.1.1. the general categories of personal data that we may process;

2.1.2. the purposes for which we may process personal data; and

2.1.3. the legal bases of the processing.

2.2. Woodland collects two types of information about you, “Personally Identifiable Information” and “Non-Personally Identifiable Information.”

2.3. Personally Identifiable Information. Personally identifiable information is information that identifies a specific person. When you engage in certain activities via the Woodland Services, including but not limited to creating an account, sending feedback, or otherwise participating in the Woodland Services (collectively, “Identification Activities”), we may ask you to provide certain information about yourself. If you elect to engage in an Identification Activity, we may ask you to provide us with certain personal information about yourself, such as your name, address, email address, telephone number and/or any other information you provide to us, to create your account of profile, send communications about them to you, and populate forms for future transactions.

2.3.1. if you enroll in the Woodland Services through a third party (such as Facebook or Google) then Woodland may receive Personally Identifiable Information from such third party and by using the Woodland Services, you consent to such receipt of Personally Identifiable Information and its use pursuant to this Privacy Policy by Woodland.

2.3.2. we may use or share Personally Identifiable Information to provide products and/or services to you to provide products and/or services to you, enhance the operation of the Woodland Services, improve our marketing and promotional efforts, analyze use of the Woodland Services, and tailor your experience with third parties as provided below in this Privacy Policy. We may also use Personally Identifiable Information to troubleshoot, resolve disputes, accomplish administrative tasks, contact you, enforce our agreements with you, including our Terms of Service and this Privacy Policy, comply with applicable law, and cooperate with law enforcement activities.

2.3.3. we may process data about your use of our website and services ("usage data"). The usage data may include your IP address, geographical location, browser type and version, operating system, referral source, length of visit, page views and website navigation paths, as well as information about the timing, frequency and pattern of your service use. The source of the usage data is our analytics tracking system. This usage data may be processed for the purposes of analyzing the use of the website and services. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services.

2.3.4. we may process your account data ("account data"). The account data may include your name and email address. The source of the account data is you. The account data may be processed for the purposes of operating our website, providing our services, ensuring the security of our website and services, maintaining back-ups of our databases and communicating with you. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services.

2.3.5. we may process your information included in your personal profile on our website ("profile data"). The profile data may include your name, address, telephone number, email address, profile pictures, and company name. The profile data may be processed for the purposes of enabling and monitoring your use of our website and services. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services.

2.3.6. we may process information that you post for publication on our website or through our services ("publication data"). The publication data may be processed for the purposes of enabling such publication and administering our website and services. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services.

2.3.7. we may process information contained in any inquiry you submit to us regarding goods and/or services ("inquiry data"). The enquiry data may be processed for the purposes of offering, marketing and selling relevant goods and/or services to you. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services.

2.3.8. we may process information relating to transactions, including purchases of goods and services, that you enter into with us and/or through our website (“transaction data”). The transaction data may include first and last names, an email address to be used as a login, billing contact information, credit card number and a password. The transaction data may be processed for the purpose of supplying the purchased goods and services and keeping proper records of those transactions. The legal basis for this processing is the performance of a contract between you and us and/or taking steps, at your request, to enter into such a contract and our legitimate interests.

2.3.9. we may process information that you provide to us for the purpose of subscribing to our email notifications and/or newsletters (“notification data”). The notification data may be processed for the purposes of sending you the relevant notifications and/or newsletters. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services. If you do not wish to receive this promotional material, you may opt out at any time by:

2.3.9.1. sending an e-mail or writing to us telling us you do not wish to receive further promotional material; or

2.3.9.2. using the “unsubscribe” process described in the promotional material.

2.3.10. we may process information contained in or relating to any communication that you send to us (“correspondence data”). The correspondence data may include the communication content and metadata associated with the communication. Our website will generate the metadata associated with communications made using the website contact forms. The correspondence data may be processed for the purposes of communicating with you and record-keeping. The legal basis for this processing is your consent or our legitimate interests, namely monitoring and improving our website and services.

2.3.11. we may process any of your personal data identified in this policy where necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interests, namely the protection and assertion of our legal rights, your legal rights and the legal rights of others.

2.3.12. in addition to the specific purposes for which we may process your personal data set out in this Section 2, we may also process any of your personal data where such processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.

2.3.13. please do not supply any other person’s personal data to us unless we prompt you to do so and you have that person’s authorization to provide such.

2.4. Non-Personally Identifiable Information. Non-Personally Identifiable Information is information that does not identify a specific person. This type of information may include things like the Uniform Resource Locator (“URL”) of the website you visited before coming to the Woodland Services or otherwise participating in the Woodland Services, the URL of the website you visit after leaving the Woodland Services, the type of browser you are using, your Internet Protocol (“IP”) address, mobile carrier information, mobile device information, or general and/or aggregated location data that does constitute Personally Identifiable Information. We, and/or our authorized Third-Party Service Providers, may automatically collect this information when you visit or use the Woodland Services using electronic tools like Cookies and Web beacons or Pixel tags, as described below in this Privacy Policy. We use Non-Personally Identifiable Information to troubleshoot, administer the Woodland Services, analyze trends, gather demographic information, comply with applicable law, and cooperate with law enforcement activities. We may also share this information with our authorized Third-Party Service Providers to measure the overall effectiveness of our products and services.

3. PROVIDING YOUR PERSONAL DATA TO OTHERS.

3.1. We do not rent or sell your personally identifiable information to third parties.

3.2. We may disclose your personal data to any member of our group of companies, this means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and all its subsidiaries insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes, and on the legal bases, set out in this policy.

3.3. Financial transactions relating to our website and services may be handled by our payment services providers. We will share transaction data with our payment services providers only to the extent necessary for the purposes of processing your payments, refunding such payments and dealing with complaints and queries relating to such payments and refunds.

3.4. We may disclose your inquiry data to one or more of those selected third-party suppliers of services via APIs identified on our website for the purpose of enabling them to connect your account with their Services, if any. Each such third party will act as a data controller in relation to the inquiry data that we supply to it. Each such third party will supply to you a copy of its own privacy policy, which will govern that third party's use of your personal data.

3.5. Woodland has an obligation when providing any and all of your data to any third party is to ensure that the third party effectively processes the personal data in a manner consistent with our own policies. In the event of a compliance failure by such third-party company may be liable for the third-party lack of compliance and shall take appropriate steps to remedy the situation including, but not limited to, ensuring that processing by the third party shall cease and taking steps to remediate unauthorized processing.

3.6. In addition to the specific disclosures of personal data set out in this Section 3, we may disclose your personal data where such disclosure is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person. We may also disclose your personal data where such disclosure is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, whether in court proceedings or in an administrative or out-of-court procedure.

3.7. We do disclose personal information in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements. We'll notify you when we're asked to hand over your personal information in this way unless we're legally prohibited from doing so. When we receive requests like this, we'll only release your personal information if we have a good faith belief that the law requires us to do so.

4. ABOUT COOKIES.

4.1. A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is stored by the browser. The identifier is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.

4.2. Cookies may be either “persistent” cookies or “session” cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session.

4.3. Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.

4.4. COOKIES THAT WE USE. We use cookies for the following purposes:

4.4.1. authentication – we use cookies to identify you when you visit our website and as you navigate our website.

4.4.2. referral program – we use cookies to identify accounts, which came to our Site through referral links so that we are able to reward their participation in the project.

4.4.3. security – we use cookies as an element of the security measures used to protect user accounts, including preventing fraudulent use of login credentials, and to protect our website and services generally.

4.4.4. analysis – we use cookies to help us to analyze the use and performance of our website and services.

4.5. COOKIES USED BY OUR SERVICE PROVIDERS.

4.5.1. Our service providers use cookies and those cookies may be stored on your computer when you visit our website.

4.5.2. We use Google Analytics to analyze the use of our website. Google Analytics gathers information about website use by means of cookies. The information gathered relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of our website. Google’s privacy policy is available at: <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.

4.6. MANAGING COOKIES.

4.6.1. Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies and to delete cookies. The methods for doing so vary from browser to browser, and from version to version. You can however obtain up-to-date information about blocking and deleting cookies via these links:

4.6.2. Blocking all cookies will have a negative impact upon the usability of many websites.

4.6.3. If you block cookies, you will not be able to use all the features on our website.

5. ANALYTICS.

5.1. We continuously improve our websites and our products, and we utilize different third-party web analytics tools to help us do so. We are interested in how visitors use our websites, our desktop tools, our mobile applications, what they like and dislike, and where they have problems. Our products, desktop tools and mobile applications use analytical tools to understand feature usage patterns, to enhance and improve your product experience and offer you specific usage tips and guidance. In connection with normal business operations, as well as to increase functionality and enhance your user experience, this usage information may be linked to personal information that we have about individual users. We maintain ownership of this data and we do not share this type of data about individual users with third parties.

5.2. Our mobile applications will also use analytical tools to help gather non-personally identifiable data about download and application usage. We may use information such as IP addresses to determine the general geographic locations of our visitors, but this information is not correlated to personal information about individual users. The web beacons used in conjunction with these tools may gather data such as what browser a person uses, what operating systems are used, domain names, MIME types, what is downloaded, and what content, products and services are reviewed when visiting or registering for services at one of our websites or using one of our mobile applications.

5.3. This information is used solely to assist us in maintaining a more effective and useful websites and products for our customers. This data will not be shared with third parties without your prior consent or unless required by law.

6. YOUR RIGHTS.

6.1. In this Section 6, we have summarized the rights that you may have under data protection law, depending on which jurisdiction you are in or reside in. Some of the rights are complex, and not all of the details have been included in our summaries. Accordingly, you should read the relevant laws and guidance from the regulatory authorities for a full explanation of these rights.

6.2. Your principal rights under data protection law may be:

6.2.1. the right to access;

6.2.2. the right to rectification;

6.2.3. the right to erasure;

6.2.4. the right to restrict processing;

6.2.5. the right to object to processing;

6.2.6. the right to data portability;

6.2.7. the right to complain to a supervisory authority; and

6.2.8. the right to withdraw consent.

6.3. You have the right to confirmation as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data. Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee.

6.4. You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, considering the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.

6.5. In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed; you withdraw consent to consent-based processing; you object to the processing under certain rules of applicable data protection law; the processing is for direct marketing purposes; and the personal data have been unlawfully processed. However, there are exclusions of the right to erasure. The general exclusions include where processing is necessary: for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information; for compliance with a legal obligation; or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

6.6. In some circumstances you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Those circumstances are: you contest the accuracy of the personal data; processing is unlawful but you oppose erasure; we no longer need the personal data for the purposes of our processing, but you require personal data for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; and you have objected to processing, pending the verification of that objection. Where processing has been restricted on this basis, we may continue to store your personal data. However, we will only otherwise process it: with your consent; for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person; or for reasons of important public interest.

6.7. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data on grounds relating to your particular situation, but only to the extent that the legal basis for the processing is that the processing is necessary for: the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of any official authority vested in us; or the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us or by a third party. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process the personal information unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

6.8. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes (including profiling for direct marketing purposes). If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.

6.9. You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes on grounds relating to your particular situation, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

6.10. To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is:

6.10.1. consent; or

6.10.2. that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party or in order to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract, and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

6.11. To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal information is consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal.

6.12. If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority responsible for data protection.

7. RETAINING AND DELETING PERSONAL DATA

7.1. This Section 7 sets out our data retention policies and procedures, which are designed to help ensure that we comply with our legal obligations in relation to the retention and deletion of personal data.

7.2. Personal data that we process for any purpose or purposes shall be kept until such time as we receive a request for deletion from you.

7.3. Information that you submit via the Services is sent to and stored on secure servers and your information is processed in accordance with applicable data protection laws. However, your information may be transferred to NAFTA Treaty countries, CARICOM nations and further, in the European Economic Area ("EEA"). If we transfer your information and said information enters international servers, we will take steps to ensure that your privacy rights continue to be protected.

7.4. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 7, we may retain your personal data where such retention is necessary to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject, or in order to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another natural person.

8. WHOM CAN I ASK IF I HAVE ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS?

For additional inquiries about the privacy of your information, you can contact us by emailing us at support@woodlandeco.com
